About Trinity

A Statement of Mission

Trinity College is a community united in a quest for excellence in liberal arts education. The paramount purpose is to foster critical thinking, free the mind of parochialism and prejudice, and prepare students to lead examined lives that are personally satisfying, civically responsible, and socially useful.

Who we are:

- *An independent, nonsectarian, liberal arts college in a capital city.
- *One of the oldest colleges in the country, founded in 1823
- *Consistently recognized among the nation's best colleges.
- *Eighth oldest chapter of Phi Beta Kappa in the country.
- *Student/faculty ratio of 10:1.
- *2,300 full-time undergraduate men and women from 47 states and 29 countries.

Where we live:

- *A 100-acre campus in the center of Hartford (metropolitan population 857,000), the capital of Connecticut.
- *Two hours from both New York City and Boston.
- *Nine of 10 students live on campus.
- *Special-interest dormitories for community activists, music lovers, artists, science students, and others.

What we study:

- *900 courses in 37 majors.
- *Nine interdisciplinary majors.
- Personal curricular options: Study abroad, independent study, exchange programs, intensive studies, self-designed interdisciplinary majors
- Special programs: Guided Studies Program, Interdisciplinary Science Program, The Cities Program, InterArts Program, Human Rights Program.
- Degrees conferred: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Master of Arts.

Where we study:

- *One of the largest academic libraries in New England, with 1,000,000 books and 4,000 periodicals, an on-line catalog, and computer access to more than 2,000,000 titles through a library consortium.
- *All dormitory rooms and faculty offices are fully networked, with public-access computers available 24 hours a day in the Raether Library and Information Technology Center.
- *Nearly 50 percent of students study abroad for a semester or a year - at Trinity's Rome Campus, or in other approved study programs around the world, in more than 40 countries on five continents.
- *Trinity operates global learning sites throughout the world with programs in Santiago, Chile; Paris, France; Moscow, Russia; Cape Town, South Africa; Barcelona, Spain; Port-of-Spain, Trinidad; and Istanbul, Turkey.
- *Domestic study programs include: Trinity/LaMaMa Performing Arts in New York City; research in Washington, DC; maritime studies at Mystic Seaport; 12-College Exchange; theater courses at the National Theater Institute.

assumed the duties of president and Trinity College professor in the humanities of Trinity College on Thursday, July 1, 2004. Jones came to Trinity after serving as president of Kalamazoo College in Michigan since 1996. Jones considers the continued strengthening of the College's ties to the community and growing the endowment among his priorities.

Prior to joining Kalamazoo in 1996, Jones was a professor in the humanities and vice provost of Southern Methodist University and dean of Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences at SMU. From 1975 to 1991, Jones held various academic positions at Washington University in St. Louis, including professor and chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literature as well as director of the Summer Language Institute in France, Château de la Hercerie, La Croix-en-Touraine. Earlier, he served as preceptor in the Department of French and Romance Philology at Columbia University, and as chair of the Department of Foreign Languages at Woodward Academy in Atlanta.

Jones received his doctorate and master's of philosophy degrees from Columbia University and earned an M.A. from Emory University and a B.A. from the University of Virginia. He holds a Certificat, Degré Avancé, from Ecole des Professeurs de Français à l'Étranger, the Sorbonne.

What we experience:

- *An ideal liberal arts education plus extraordinary exposure to real life as a result of Trinity's location in a capital city.
- *Internships, through Trinity's program of more than 200 established internships in the Hartford area. Some examples: Smith Barney, Aetna, United Technologies Corp., PaineWebber, Connecticut Department of Education, Connecticut Prison Association, Hartford Hospital, Dance Connecticut, Hartford Symphony, MCI, The Hartford Courant, Fleet Bank, The Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford, and The American Cancer Society.
- *The history and culture of a vibrant city, including the Wadsworth Atheneum, the oldest public art museum in the country; the Mark Twain Museum; Harriet Beecher Stowe Center; Hartford Civic Center; Hartford Symphony; and Hartford Stage.

Athletic Director Richard Hazelton

In 2007-08, the Trinity athletic program flourished as its varsity teams compiled a stellar 510-202 record. The Bantam men's cross country, men's basketball, men's ice hockey, baseball, women's lacrosse, and women's rowing teams earned berths to the NCAA Division III Championship, while several individual athletes qualified for their respective sport's championships. The baseball team enjoyed a historic ride to the program's first NCAA National title, breaking numerous records with 44 wins to start the year and a 45-1 final mark. The women's rowing squad finished second at the NCAA National Regatta, while the men's crews took home the ECAC National crown and their fourth New England Championship title in a row. The Trinity men's squash team captured its 10th consecutive national title with an 18-0 record and extended the nation's longest winning streak in any collegiate sport to 183 triumphs in a row. Both the men's and women's squash teams and the men's basketball, men's ice hockey, baseball, and men's rowing teams won NESCAC titles.

Since 1982, Director of Athletics Richard J. Hazelton has taken strides toward creating a winning environment at Trinity College. Competing on the NCAA Division III level, Trinity College sponsors 29 intercollegiate sports, 15 for men and 14 for women. In addition, there are numerous intramural and club sports in which non-varsity athletes can participate. In Hazelton's tenure, the College has constructed an eight-lane, 37-meter swimming pool, 16-seat rowing tanks, a vastly improved fitness room, the nation's top squash facility, two synthetic turf fields, a rowing boathouse, and numerous improvements to the playing fields and facilities. The College's newest facility, the Koepfel Community Sports Center and Williams Rink, opened in 2006 to give the Bantam ice hockey teams their first on-campus home ice and provide a fantastic venue for skating and other activities for the campus and Hartford communities.

Hazelton earned his bachelor's degree from Marietta College in 1966 and received a master's of science degree in sports administration from the University of Massachusetts in 1976. Hazelton taught history and was an assistant football coach at Lancaster High School in Ohio from 1969-73 before becoming the head freshman football coach at Amherst College in 1973.

In 1974, Hazelton came to Trinity when he was named an assistant professor of physical education, head track & field coach, and assistant football coach. For eight seasons, Hazelton worked under former Head Football Coach Don Miller, helping Trinity record six winning campaigns and a 42-21-1 record, a .664 winning percentage.

In January 1982, Hazelton assumed the duties of the acting associate athletic director when Karl Kurth took a sabbatical leave. Kurth subsequently retired, and Hazelton was named Trinity's director of athletics and department chair. In 1989, Hazelton was promoted to professor of physical education. He has been a Core Consulting faculty member of Charter Oak State College since 1997.

During his tenure, Hazelton has been extremely active on various committees throughout the region and the nation. Previously the chairman of the ECAC North/South Hockey Tournament (1987-91) and a member of the ECAC Finance Committee (1993-96), Hazelton has also served on the NCAA Voting Committee (1987-90), the NCAA Football Rules Committee (1996-00), the NCAA Competitive Safeguards and Medical Aspects of Sports Committee (1998-00), and NCAA Committee on Committees (1990-93). In addition, Hazelton was the chairman of the NECAC selection committee for Division III Male Athlete of the Year from 1988-92 (member 1985-93), chairman of the ECAC Division III lacrosse tournament in 1990 and 1996-98, and a member of both the ECAC East-West Hockey Tournament Committee from 1996-99 and the ECAC Ice Hockey Executive Committee (1990-98). Hazelton was chairman of the ECAC Collegiate Rowing Championship Regatta Board of Stewards (member since 1995) and was a member of both the ECAC Football Executive Committee, the ECAC Marketing Committee, and the ECAC Division III Basketball Tournament Committee. From 1982-1999, Hazelton served as the treasurer for the New England Small College Athletic Conference, and was president in 1990-91 and 2005-06. In 2002, Hazelton was awarded the General Robert Neyland Athletic Director Award by the All-American Football Foundation.

Hazelton and his wife, Anne, reside in nearby Windsor and have three sons, all of whom have studied at Trinity and played varsity lacrosse: Tad '92, who also played football, James '93, and Alex '99.

Athletic Facilities

No fitness and athletics program can be a success without quality facilities and equipment. Ours is no exception to that rule. Trinity's sports and athletic programs are enhanced by many top-notch facilities.

Central to all fitness and athletic programs is the Ferris Athletic Center, which houses many of the facilities used by students and athletes. These include our superb squash facility, the Kellner Squash Center, which is a fitting home base for the top men's and women's squash programs in the country. It features 10 international-size courts, two of which are constructed with three glass walls for easy spectator viewing, as well as pyramid-style, amphitheater seating that enables up to 500 spectators to watch matches on all 10 courts simultaneously. Trinity is the only collegiate squash program to use the white ball.

The Ferris Center is also home to the Ray Oosting Gymnasium, with seating for 2,100. It boasts two volleyball courts and two basketball courts and was the site of the men's NCAA Division III basketball regional playoffs in 1995.

Trinity's popular 5,400 square-foot fitness center offers the full complement of fitness machines and state-of-the-art equipment, including selectorized weight machines, treadmills, ellipticals, stairmasters, lifecycles, ergometers, and free weights. Cable television viewing is also available on both the upper and lower levels. The fitness center is open to all students and members of the faculty and staff 16 hours a day, seven days a week.

Other indoor facilities include a multipurpose field house with a 1/10th-mile track and indoor tennis courts, wrestling and exercise rooms, and an auxiliary gymnasium.

Swimmers and divers at Trinity train in our Natatorium, which features a 25-yard, eight-lane stretch pool and a 14-foot deep diving well with a movable bulkhead for water polo. The divers train on one- and three-meter boards and full-size and mini trampolines.

Trinity's rowing program takes advantage of both

Hartford's proximity to the magnificent Connecticut River and an indoor rowing facility housed in the Ferris Athletic Center. The newly renovated Friends of Trinity Rowing Boathouse sits just 15 minutes away in East Hartford. The spacious facility houses 12 eights, seven fours, and numerous smaller boats, as well as men's and women's locker rooms, a study and common room, and a land training area. In the off-season, rowers also stay in shape using our 16-seat rowing tanks and 40 stationary ergometers located in Ferris Athletic Center.

The Jessee/Miller Field, named after two legendary Trinity football coaches, features the College's football field with a modern FieldTurf playing surface, all-weather, six-lane (eight-lane straightaway), 400-meter track, and stadium seating for 6,500 people.

The College's wide range of outdoor facilities, also includes Robin L. Sheppard Field, named after another of Trinity's greatest coaches, a state-of-the-art artificial turf field hockey and lacrosse field with lights, along with two Class A soccer/lacrosse fields, softball and baseball diamonds, eight tennis courts, and four recently renovated intramural fields.

The Koepfel Community Sports Center opened its doors in November 2006, and is a multi-use athletic facility on the southern edge of campus. It features the Albert Creighton Williams '64 Rink, a state-of-the-art 200' x 90' ice arena that serves as home-ice for Trinity men's and women's ice hockey teams, and provides opportunities for faculty, students, and staff to collaborate with the community through academic and athletic mentoring programs. Designed as an extension of the Learning Corridor educational campus, the sports center meets one of SINA's key objectives—providing safe space for recreational opportunities and constructive programming for the community. The Koepfel Center may be the first urban community athletic facility in the country that connects neighborhood families with the resources of a liberal arts college.

COACHING STAFF

Andrew McPhee enters his seventh year as the head coach of the Trinity women's ice hockey program. In six seasons, McPhee has established Trinity as one of the premier programs in Division III. The 2007-08 season was a breakout year for the Bantams who finished the season 18-5-3, the best record in program history. McPhee led the Bantam squad to an USCHO.com Top 10 ranking throughout the majority of the season and a spot in the NESCAC Final Four for the first time. For his leadership, McPhee was named the 2007-08 NESCAC Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the American Hockey Coaches Association (AHCA) Coach of the Year. McPhee, who also garnered NESCAC Coach of the Year accolades after the 2004-05 season, coached the program's first AHCA All-American in 2007-08 when Isabel Iwachiw garnered First Team honors for her tremendous play in goal.

Before arriving at Trinity, McPhee earned his bachelor's degree in history from Middlebury College, where he starred in football and baseball from 1994 to 1998. He served as an assistant women's ice hockey, football, and baseball coach at his alma mater from 1998 to 2000. While assisting the Middlebury women he helped guide them to their first national championship in 2000. McPhee also coached the wide receivers for Trinity's NESCAC Champion football squad for six seasons, helping the Bantams win 31 games in a row with three all-league receivers during his tenure.

During the summer McPhee has worked and continues to coach at a number of camps and showcases, including the Rinksport College Prep Program at URI, the NAHA Showcase in Burlington, Vt., and Cutting Edge College Week in Danbury, Conn.

Lindsay Hansen enters her third season as an assistant coach this season. Originally from Northport, N.Y., Hansen earned her bachelors degree in sociology from the University of New Hampshire in 2006. As a member of one of the top Division I college hockey programs in the country, Hansen collected a wall of accolades in her collegiate career. In 2003-04, she led the Hockey East in scoring and was selected to the New England Hockey Writers Division I All-Star Team and the Hockey East All-Star First-Team. In her first season, Hansen won the team's Rookie of the Year Award, made the Hockey East All-Rookie Team and was selected as the Hockey East Rookie of the Year.

About the NESCAC

Founded in 1971, the New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC) is a group of eleven highly selective liberal arts colleges and universities that share a similar philosophy for intercollegiate athletics. The Conference was created out of a concern for the direction of intercollegiate athletic programs, and remains committed to keeping a proper perspective on the role of sport in higher education.

The formation of NESCAC originated with an agreement among Amherst College, Bowdoin College, Wesleyan University and Williams College first drafted in 1955. Along with these four institutions, Bates College, Colby College, Hamilton College, Middlebury College, Trinity College and Tufts University are sustaining charter members. Connecticut College joined in 1982, bringing the Conference's membership to its current total of 11 institutions.

NESCAC members believe intercollegiate athletic programs should operate in harmony with the educational mission of each institution. The Conference is committed to establishing common boundaries to keep athletics strong but in proportion to the overall academic mission of the member institutions. In pursuit of this mission, the Presidents of each NESCAC institution control intercollegiate athletic policy. Conference tenets are usually more restrictive than those of the NCAA Division III with regard to season length, number of contests and post-season competition.

NESCAC institutions also believe athletic teams should be representative of the entire student body. Thus, admissions and financial policies are consistent with the NCAA Division III policies that prohibit athletic scholarships and award financial aid solely on the basis of need.

In 1999, the NESCAC formally became a playing conference and now sponsors 26 conference championship sports (13 for men and 13 for women). Member schools offer extensive and broad based intercollegiate as well as club and intramural opportunities for both men and women. With member institutions sponsoring an average of nearly 30 varsity programs, NESCAC provides more than 7,500 opportunities for participation in intercollegiate competition at the Division III level. Teams and individuals have achieved great success on both a regional and national level. During the 2007-08 academic year, 54 teams participated in NCAA team championships. NESCAC student-athletes claimed 22 individual national championships and NESCAC teams won seven national team championships.
